

Cato's Randy Barnett testifies on ObamaCare before the Senate Judiciary Committee, 2/3/11

Posted 03 February 2011 | Live Wire

Do you like this video? Please rate and share it, and leave us a comment! On Wednesday, February 3, 2011, Cato senior fellow and Georgetown University constitutional law professor Randy E. Barnett testified before the Senate Judiciary Committee on the constitutionality of the individual mandate in ObamaCare. He analyzed the government's Commerce Clause and Necessary & Proper Clause, and explained to the Senate panel why the government should think twice about this imprudent exercise of regulatory power.

About: Stix1972:

Owner of Stix Blog. Doug also posts at RedState as Black River Wolf. He is also at the St Louis Examiner and Washington Examiner Opinion Zone. He has been blogging for about 10 years, and can always be found on twitter.