

Glenn Beck Show – April 13, 2011

Posted by The Right Scoop on Apr 13, 2011 in Politics

Today we heard President Obama say that the debt really does matter. For most of his tenure, he has been subscribing to a bogus economic philosophy that government spending can spur the economy- and that the government can spend as much as it wants in order to carry out this absurd idea. So, what if anything changed with today's speech?

Tonight's guests include Senator Lindsey Graham (R-SC) ?!, Former Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee, Congresswoman Michele Bachmann (R-MN), Fox News Analyst Kirsten Powers, Nancy Skinner and CATO Institute's Mark Calabria.

Enjoy!
