

Catallaxy Files

Australia's leading libertarian and centre-right blog

Beef with the Austrians

Written by Rafe

October 13th, 2011 at 5:01 pm

4 comments

By a stroke of good fortune the Grand Tour lobs into Washington in time for the touring party to dine with the Austrians at the annual dinner of the Society for Development of Austrian Economics.

The event will take place on Sunday night November 20th at the host Marriott Waldman Park in Washington, DC. We will be starting with drinks and a reception from 6:30pm-7:30pm and then continuing with dinner and our program from 7:30pm-10pm. We will let you know about the exact location when it is finalized.

We will have our usual presentation of the FEE prizes and recognition of the Lavoie Prize and Menger Contest winners, as well as Dick Wagner's presidential address and our business meeting. Most important, however, is that we will be presenting our third Lifetime Achievement Award to Leonard Liggio.

The Society, with large thanks to Pete Boettke, has been able to secure generous donations from the Earhart Foundation and Liberty Fund, as well as having sold tables to the Koch Foundation, the Mercatus Center, and the Cato Institute, so that we have completely covered the cost of dinner.

All dinners include a baby wedge iceberg salad and citrus parfait dessert as well as two drink tickets for the bar.

Your choice of entrees consists of:

Char grilled salmon with shitake mushrooms and pinot noir sauce

Grilled filet mignon with cabernet reduction

a Chef's choice vegetarian option

If you know that you will be attending, you can reply to this email to reserve a seat. Please let us know if you prefer the salmon, the beef, or the vegetarian/vegan when you reply.

Yum! Make mine beef.