Monday links: Health care reform, tax hikes, and geolocation

- Americans for Tax Reform published a great document outlining all the tax increases associated with the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act or "Obamacare". You can download that document here.
 - We have made some recent additions to our "Healthcare Reform" page on Freedomkentucky.org!
- This blog by The Cato Institute about the government using cell phones for geolocation is more than just a little scary.
