No Aedyn, you are now a trash collector, so Obama's job creation program is working. Also trash collection is a 'green' job, so he's getting credit for creating 'green' jobs too!

Ivory Coast - tax-free v union

"The problem is they will not have a place in a reunified Ivory Coast, what with their untaxed scooters, unlicensed businesses and lack of driving licences.

I work for the federal gov and I got an e-mail this morning from our office manager here at work which said starting tomorrow we are all responsible for emptying our individual trash cans into a common receptacle for pick up.

There's a freedom recession in the USA because...

...many people will sell their freedom for chump change, and a promise they will be taken care of by the people to whom they sell their votes.

You mean the dp is going to throw the race card again, several already have. Apparently standing in the way of the dp re-enslaving black people (along with everybody else), is racist and/or bigoted. The only thing worse (and far deadlier) than being owned by an individual, is being owned by a government.

Hussein isn't really raising taxes financial servicing companies, the money will come from people who use financial services companies.

Desensitize the oversensitive. If someone is going to get offended over something trivial and unintended, I'll give 'em something worth being offended over, so next time they'll know the difference.

Harry and the dp were aq and the mad mullahs' best hope for victory in Iraq, and it wasn't just US soldiers that paid the price, but Iraqi civilians slaughtered because people like Harry would automatically blame us for it and leave the battlefield to aq and the irg.

Though I think the GOP is being stupid, I see very little intelligence at politico, an obvious dp propaganda site. Sorry I wasted the time following that link, I can get their opinions from their 'news'.

The Cadillac policy surtax is only toxic until the unions get their special breaks from the law, then it will be the best thing since sliced bread.

That "100 al Qaeda fighters in Afghanistan," is a bit misleading. It's winter, and aq is shacked up in Pakistan. Tribal warfare is seasonal in cold climates, but we operate in all weather (and our thermal imagers are more effective in cold), so they aren't safe shacking up in Afghanistan for the winter. Come spring thaw, they'll be out killing people as usual.

Thanks for the Ivory Coast link, that will be interesting to watch develop.

Home ownership my foot.

As demonstrated by the SCOTUS ruling in Kelo v. New London, you're only allowed to own your home until the local government decides it can increase its tax revenue by seizing your home and giving it to somebody else.

I don't know how New London can maintain its tax exempt status, now that it has demonstrated most clearly that it is a "for profit corporation"

A libertarian paradise? -NOT

"...inhabitants of this zone have got used to living without government taxes, customs charges and even water and electricity bills."

See Neal, the reason why a lot of people are turned off by the libertarian beliefs is they think libertarians are for anarchy and lawlessness. This is not a libertarian paradise, and I am sure (hope) this is a joke on your part. Not paying electricity and water bills? Where do you think these resources come from? The utility fairy? Either they are stealing these utilities or the government is giving it away to buy loyalty!

WASHINGTON (Reuters) - U.S. taxpayer profits from bank bailout investments are being offset by estimated losses from American International Group and automakers and mortgage payment cuts for struggling homeowners, a U.S. Treasury report showed on Monday.

The Treasury estimated net losses on its $700 billion bailout program at $68.5 billion for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2009.

I believe that trumps the 45 billion the Feds made

Suppose for a millisecond that Reid said "at least he isn't dark skinned and speaks ebonics" or "that's a negro I can support" would anybody think that as praise. Loss of Freedom Part 1

There is a very real loss of freedom in this country. Funny thing is that most people blame it on the terrorists who have "forced" our leaders to crack down. My friends and Patriots this is NOT the reality. I am afraid to report to you that the war on terrorism was simply a tactic used by our leaders to strip us of as many freedoms as possible. The Patriot Act does not protect people like you and I from terrorists. The Patriot Act gives the Fed the ability to arrest you for ANY reason and then say that you were a threat to national security. I know alot of Fake Conservatives aka Bush Republicans do not understand this (I used to be a Bush Republican so I know). Okay let me break this down to you. The elements within our government that orchestrated all of this are not worried about terrorists. They are worried about YOU. They are worried about what YOU will do once they bankrupt this country completely.

Let me remind you of the MIAC report from Homeland Security. In the report people that stand up for their Constitutional rights are now deemed Rightwing Extremists. If you believe in the right to bare arms or if support Ron Paul you are a terrorist. If you are against illegal immigration you are a terrorist. If you are a military veteran you are a terrorist. They say if you don't like Barack Obama you are a racist because you couldn't possibly have political differences. This report was sent out to Federal agencies and to Police all around the country. This is criminal. 9/11 and the wars in the Middle East were meant to break the spirit of Americans. It worked. Lt. Col. Anthony Shaffer of operation Able Danger has come forward basically detailing how Federal government agencies and the Bush Administration KNEW the 9/11 attacks were imminent, but did nothing. Lt. Col. Shaffer had the evidence needed to stop the hijackers before they made their move. He was told to stand down even though he had evidence by the truck loads. It is nearly impossible to convince people that 9/11 was an inside job, but it is EASY to prove that they knew about the attacks and did nothing. That much we know 100%. Ultimately the attacks were carried out and no heads rolled as a result with the exception of those individuals who tried to warn us ahead of time. Those people lost their jobs. That seems fair doesn't it?

Loss of Freedom Part 2

The financial downturn was setup in order for the banksters like Geithner and Bernanke to literally siphon off all the wealth left in the US in order to pay off all of their bankster buddies at home and abroad. They have done this so that they can make money on the way up and then rob the population on the way down and then ultimately keep the power structure. You see in a sane government we would have let the companies that have failed actually fail. That makes it so that smaller more responsible companies can step up and make corrections to the system. The system THEY have set up is meant to keep the status quo even in the event of total meltdown. That is wrong and extremely elitist.

This Timmygate as some are calling it should be renamed to BanksterGate because we should be going after ALL of them because they are ALL criminal. This is the mother of all ponsi schemes. What these madmen are doing is buying up as many assets as humanly possible while the dollar is still worth anything. Once they have made all of their power moves they will either devalue the dollar by Federal Mandate through the Treasury or they could just let the currency go to hell on its own through hyperinflation. Whatever the outcome may be there will be many many lives lost in the process once push goes to shove. I implore anyone reading this to please watch The Obama Deception and Fall of the Republic. Those two films outline everything very nicely. If you would like to understand the power structure that exists I also recommend End Game.

This is the fight of our lives. NOTHING and I do mean N O T H I N G is more important than stopping what these people are doing. Forget your stupid sports games and your reality TV shows. Those are purely distractions and are meant to be used as such. Please do not let these oligarchs continue to run your lives for you. It is okay to get upset. It is okay to get furious. In the end you have to take a step back and ask yourself a question. Is YOUR freedom worth saving? All we have to do is get mad. All we have to do is demand action. All we have to do is show these tyrants that enough is enough. This is America damn it and she is vulnerable. These tyrants are moving in for the death blow. This is as real as it will ever get.

Cato nails it again.

Great article from Cato discussing the government bias toward home ownership. The lousy Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) from the Dems as well as the equally lousy up to $8,000 tax credit for home buyers (Isakson's own CRA) from Isakson, just shows that most of the problems with this current economy can be attributed to social engineering by the government.

"Good News" found here!!

Here's some good news that wouldn't be reported here because it's not negative enough! One would think that if reading this blog for the first time that it was written by some whiney,anti-everything Republican-aide of some backwater hick representative whose boss pines for his or her "15 minutes of fame" in the national spotlight! But it wsn't, it is written Atlanta's own wanna-be something one day himself Mr. Domsday,the Deep South's one and only,Mr.Whine-Master!

More whining and end of the earth, doomsday predictions come out of this site in 4 1/2 hours than Fox News could ever hope to spread in a 24 hour news cycle!

Now for some good news:

" The Federal Reserve turned a record profit of 45 billion dollars last year even as it plowed money into teetering banks to prevent a financial collapse, the Washington Post reported Tuesday,(today.)"

"The newspaper reported that Fed Chairman Ben Bernanke has received a modest raise (The Whine-Master is probably tearing out what few strands of hair he has left hearing about this, "A RAISE",in times of a national emergency)in 201-,bringing the annual salary of one of the most powerful figures in the US to just $199,700 dollars,with no bonus."

Isn't this good news,whiners?

Re Race Card

The CBC continues the tradition of fostering the most heinous faction of the slave trade; that of blacks owning other blacks. Their "report card" of issues is simply a wish list of enslaving programs designed, not to help their fellows, but to keep them running to CBC members for "help". And it is all veiled in the putrid guise of "racial fairness".

What a crock.

A tax on TARP-assisted financial companies is a good idea.

We need to recoup the trillions we gave to the banks in the form of TARP loans. What I see is that banks and their CEOs were given free access to out tax money to gamble with it. If they lose we foot the bill. If they win they get to keep the winnings. And this so called "Wall Street talent" gets huge bonuses as result of their gambling with our money, thanks to Tim Geitner being in bed with the banks and AIG.

Yes I'd like to see a large tax on financial company profits, bonuses, and even credit card transactions. I'd like to see this tax in place until every nickel of TARP plus interest has been payed back by these badly run corporations and their greedy executives. Yes it's a socialist action, but so is stealing trillions of taxpayer dollars by force, and using it to "rescue" private companies (that have done little in terms of providing loans to small businesses and individuals). Regardless of who we have in office, it seems as if its always business as usual between the banks and the big banks. Political campaign contributions and their lobbyists drive much of what occurs in Washington, unfortunately. The voters are soon forgotten after an election.

Now let's see if that bozo, "twisted saint" attacks me for speaking against the large banks and their "talented" executives.

Not an offense

Mr. Obama, in an interview on TV One, said that Mr. Reid used "inartful language in trying to praise me" and absolved him of having caused any offense.

So there. Let it go. The poor old doddering white guy was trying to praise his leader and just tripped over his own words, probably as a result of attempting to communicate in his stupid white dialect.

Is Obama That Stupid Or That Diabolical?

Levying $1,000,000,000,000 of taxes "on financial services companies". Ummm....just where in hell does Obama think this money comes from? Face it: We have a president who is either (a) such an idiot that he knows almost nothing about economics, or (b) so intent on destroying America's economy that he blatantly states his intentions to bankrupt his people. Either way, it's a certifiable disaster, that this man lives on Pennsylvania Avenue.
