Hilarious Anti-Koch Video

Has George Soros just bitch slapped the Koch brothers?

Brave New Foundation, a Regressive organization that specializes in putting out video hit pieces, has just put out the below hilarious anti-Koch video. The video takes aim at the Kochs mostly for being rich and does a pass by smear of free markets, as a bonus.

The attacks on the Kochs come about because of their strategy to influence "democracy" via astro-turf funding. Hows that strategy working out for you fellas?

What's most curious is that the Koch-funded Cato Institute just had George Soros over to the Institute to speak on Hayek. Brave New Foundation sounds an awful lot like the type of organization that is funded to some degree by Soros. Is this video a Soros "Thank You" for being invited over to Cato?
