

Letter to the editor: Radical liberals threatening our country

August 12th, 2020

I believe our nation is under extreme duress by radical liberals who have the backing of the mainstream media and many corporations.

In a July poll by the Cato Institute, 62% of Americans said the political climate today prevents them from saying what they believe.

In my opinion, there is a coordinated coup against our duly elected president, which started with the Steele dossier and impeachment, followed by exaggerated covid-19 controls and now race riots. There are no coincidences.

Every Republican position must be filled by the strongest leader. Uninspiring complacent politicians are not what we need. The storm has arrived. We need leaders, not caretakers. We need to elect the right leaders for the right moment in history. We need a Churchill, not a Chamberlain. I don't think the radical left believes in the Ten Commandments or our Constitution, and they follow the father of lies.

As President Trump said recently, "If the Republicans don't toughen up and get smart and get strong and protect our heritage and protect our country, I think they're going to have a very tough election."
