

Letter: Fraud, fake news very real

January 8, 2021

EDITOR'S NOTE: Fact-checking sites and media organizations have reported that claims of widespread voting fraud are untrue or unsubstantiated. To see how fact-checkers rate the bias of the organizations listed here, view this letter on HollandSentinel.com.

In reference to the Sunday, Dec. 13, letter to the editor: “Huizenga is a disappointment.”

I want to congratulate Rep. Bill Huizenga for standing with our President Donald Trump. To anyone who is worried about our democracy and our elections, you should not be supporting the Democratic Party or Joe Biden.

This past election was full of frauds. There have been many whistleblowers come forward and sign legal statements as to what they saw, votes from dead people, votes from people who had moved out of state, mail-in votes from people who said they had not voted, votes with no signatures, votes with no postmark, votes mailed in after the cut off date, votes that were backdated, and more.

If we want an honest democracy, we need to have honest elections and honest politicians. If you want honest news, don't watch or listen to the fake news and lies at CNN, CNBC or the three major networks. Instead, watch Lou Dobbs on “Fox Business,” and Mark Levin and Sean Hannity on Fox News, or the Newsmax channel.

For internet, check out Judicial Watch, the Cato Institute, the Heritage Foundation or the Epoch Times for nonpartisan, honest news.
