Students for Liberty Conference, February 12-14

January 14, 2010

On February 12-14 the 3rd Annual International Students For Liberty Conference will be held at American University in Washington, D.C. This year's speakers include Cato Institute founder and President Ed Crane and former governor of New Mexico Gary Johnson. To register, go here.

SFL also just announced the nominees for the 2010 Students For Liberty Awards, which will be presented at the conference. Each year the awards are presented to the student, event, and group of the year. This year's nominees include a "revolution week" and a group that held a "How to Survive a Police Encounter" event. Check out all the nominees here.

"How to Survive a Police Encounter"

Kudos.

Finally - useful instruction for our youth.

Well - Good luck to you.

Hey, gang - a Keynesian in our midst, and a very credulous one at that!
