GOP Platform 2012

By NM RayFollow

Karl Rove, the Koch Brothers, the Heritage Foundation, Cato Institute, and the Republican National Committee have announced that they have developed a new platform for 2012. They are encouraging all of their candidates to endorse the platform and the principles that are stated therein:

Wealth without Work
Pleasure without Conscience
Science without Humanity
Knowledge without Character
Politics without Principle
Commerce without Morality
Worship without Sacrifice

When Rove was asked whether there was any reason that the new GOP Platform seemed to mirror the Seven Deadly Sins of Mahatma Gandhi, Rove seemed surprised.

Rove stated that the Platform was the result of a great deal of thought and consultation of the greatest conservative minds in the Republican Party. After a great deal of discussion, the Republican Party leaders all agreed that this Platform summarized the ideals of today's GOP in a clear and concise statement.
