EconomicPolicyJournal.com

A $100 BILLION MONOPOLY JUST DOESN'T MAKE SENSE.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2010

Florida Governor-elect Names Economic Advisory Team

Governor-elect Rick Scott has named an economic advisroy team. It's better than New York governor-elect Andrew Cuomo's team, but it could have been better.

The team includes Arthur Laffer of "Laffer Curve" fame, and Tad DeHaven, a budget analyst on federal and state budget issues for the Cato Institute.

Other members include:

Donna Arduin - President at Arduin, Laffer & Moore Econometrics.

Talmadge Heflin - the Director of the Texas Public Policy Foundation's Center for Fiscal Policy.

Randall G. Holcombe – A DeVoe Moore Professor of Economics at Florida State University.

Robert McClure - President and CEO of The James Madison Institute.

Arduin, Holcombe and McClure served in various capacities for Jeb Bush, when he was Governor of Florida.

Posted by Robert Wenzel at 8:37 PM

0 comments:

Robert Wenzel
Editor & Publisher
rw@economicpolicyjournal.com

Have you signed up for the EPJ
Daily Alert, yet?
Click here for details.

A $100B MONOPOLY DOESN'T MAKE SENSE.