

Views around the country from our partners

The best national commentary from Gannett's local papers

By Robert Robb

October 22, 2013

ARIZONA - Robert Robb: Obamacare rollout may kill single payer

Many on the right assert this was the plan all along, to have Obamacare fail as a way station to a single-payer system. I don't believe that. But if Obamacare's finances implode, that will be the remedy propounded by the left. For that to be politically successful, however, there has to be the perception that Obamacare was well-implemented, it just came up short of solving the problem. The website failure makes that a difficult claim to make. READ THE REST...

INDIANA - Tad DeHaven: Republicans' errors may lead to higher federal spending

MISSISSIPPI - Lynn Evans: Changing high-risk behavior key to managing health care costs

MICHIGAN - Scott F. Cooper: How immigration reform is a key to Michigan's economy