HOW FAIRNESS DOCTRINE WAS USED IN THE PAST TO SILENCE DISSENT

Labels: Fairness Doctrine, Free Speech

Below is a link to the Cato Institute's web site page with access to the podcast by John Samples regarding the Fairness Doctrine: New and Old and related information on the topic.

Given the influence of talk radio, the Drudge Report, Pajamas TV, and bloggers, as well as many other sites on the Internet, it is only a matter of time before progressives such as our President and certain members of Congress turn their attention more fully against all of us in an attempt to silence the opposition that stands in the way of their assault on people's freedom.

It's important we all prepare ourselves for this so we can more effectively oppose it.
