

DAILY CHRONICLE

Joerg to speak at symposium

April 2, 2019

Nancy E. Joerg, senior attorney and managing shareholder of the St. Charles Office of Wessels Sherman Joerg Liszka Laverty Seneczko, has been selected by Northern Illinois University's Law Review to be a presenter at its symposium, "Lyft-ing the Veil on a Worker's Status in the Gig Economy," on April 12. The symposium will be from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at NIU's Altgeld Hall in DeKalb.

Legal issues surrounding the gig economy and technology, both in Illinois and as it compares across the states, will be examined. Joerg will discuss how companies can improve their independent contractor relationships.

Presenters include Elizabeth Chavez, Kathleen Chavez, Abby Clark, Professor Miriam Cherry, Professor Martin Malin, Professor Keith Cunningham-Parameter, and featured speaker Matthew Feeney, director of the Cato Institute Project on Emerging Technologies. Details and registration are available at go.niu.edu/lawreview2019.

Wessels Sherman is a management-side labor and employment law firm with a nationwide client base. The firm has offices in St. Charles, Chicago, Minneapolis, Davenport, Iowa, and Oconomowoc, Wisconsin.