HUFFPOST HILL - Republican Makes Heteronormative Statement

April 8, 2013

THINK TANK FIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIGHT!!!!!!!!!! - This is going to end with lot of broken black plastic framed glasses and blood-stained rep bowties. Roll Call: "This latest effort to overhaul U.S. immigration law has spawned an intellectual food fight, as two high-profile Washington think tanks battle for influence over congressional Republicans. The Cato Institute, a libertarian think tank that favors a comprehensive immigration overhaul, last week quietly posted an analysis on its website targeting The Heritage Foundation. The conservative juggernaut has long opposed comprehensive revisions, and Cato hopes that by moving to provide an alternate set of data and debunk a Heritage study that has yet to be officially acknowledged, let alone released, its grip on the GOP on this hot-button issue might be diminished, if not severed."
