With Help From Some Friends

Allright...Allright...ALLRIGHT!!!!!!

My Austin sources inform me that McConaughey has started the biggest celebration since the 2006 Rose Bowl. Now that Jay has been justly cowed by the overwhelming might of the UT Austin film brigade (former UT student F. Murray Abraham also won Best Actor by the way-HOLLA!) we can move on to other important business, like this interesting new study by Jason Bedrick about the New Hampshire tax credit program for the Show Me Institute. Unlike Jay's Oscar smack, a 97% satisfaction rate is strong.
