Okay, Army of Photoshoppers. Scott G. at Ah, Shoot is fighting the government takeover of the health care industry with all of his artistic power — and has issued a challenge for an Obamacare poster contest. He has adapted old WWII art to inform the public of the consequences of Obamacare. (The posters are all in the public domain and you can find a huge collection here. Longtime readers will recall the incredible WWII-inspired Pshops readers sent in to counter the NYTimes' blabbermouth reporting.) As I've said before, this battle must be won not just in the halls of Congress, but on the ground, in the airwaves...and in the culture. There's work to be done and a fight to be won.

Get to it:

Pro-Troop Apparel

Ranger Up is owned and operated by real troops who have deployed for our country. We are unapologetically American and are proud to both celebrate our nation and call to task those who would do our country harm - whether foreign or domestic. We strongly support charities for our returning troops.
