

William Niskanen, RIP

By John Goodman Filed under Science and Other News on October 27, 2011 with 6 comments

Bill Niskanen was a world-renowned economist and a passionate leader of the growing classical liberal movement around the globe. More importantly, he was a man of unshakeable integrity. His influence on and importance to the Cato Institute cannot be overstated. His passing is a terrible loss to the Institute and to the nation.
