EDMOND — University of Central Oklahoma recently named Mickey Hepner dean of its College of Business Administration.

Hepner has held several positions at UCO, including professor of economics and director of the UCO Policy Institute. He has received numerous awards for his teaching and scholarly activities and was named the 2007 Oklahoma Professor of the Year by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

Hepner has authored several reports for national organizations, such as the Urban Institute, Heritage Foundation and Cato Institute. He serves on the executive committee of the board of directors for Oklahoma Academy, a nonpartisan Oklahoma policy organization.

He received his bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees from University of Oklahoma.

“Here at Central our faculty is committed to helping students learn. I am excited for this opportunity to work with our dedicated faculty in making the UCO College of Business Administration the premier provider of business education in the state of Oklahoma,” Hepner said.
