

Overlawyered

Chronicling the high cost of our legal system

December 7 roundup

by WALTER OLSON on DECEMBER 7, 2011

- Debate on medical malpractice between Ted Frank (Manhattan Institute) and Shirley Svorny (Cato Institute) [PoL]
- Lawyers, accountants have done well from litigation-ridden Pearlman Ponzi aftermath [Orlando Sentinel]
- Book drop “inherently dangerous”, says rape victim’s family suing library designers Florida, [LISNews]
- “The iTunes Class Action Lawsuit You’ll Never Hear About” [NJLRA]
“Jackson v. Unocal – Class Actions Find a Welcome Home in Colorado” [Karlsgodt]
- Another tot accused of sexual harassment, this time a first grader [Boston Herald, earlier (six year old's "assault")]
- Profile of lawyer who defends fair use of clips for documentary makers [ABA Journal]

Related posts

- Rob Lowe nanny lawsuits (2)
- Preacher’s lawsuit: “Religulous” made me look silly (3)
- October 28 roundup (3)
- November 1999 archives, part 2 (0)
- Medical liability roundup (4)

Tagged as: Apple, bankruptcy, Florida, harassment law, medical malpractice, movies film and videos