

'Fight for Freedom': Lecture at Newman School will focus on battle in Ukraine

April, 6, 2022

The current Ukrainian situation will be the subject of an in-person and streamed lecture April 19 at Isidore Newman School's Henson Auditorium.

Dr. Tom G. Palmer, vice president of international programs at the Atlas Network, will discuss "The Ukraine Fight is for Freedom: Its Own and The World's" as part of the Civil Discourse Speaker Series — Open Inquiry in the Pursuit of Truth at the school at 5333 Danneel St., New Orleans.

The lecture will be a report from Kiev and a moral comparison of clashing philosophies with a Q&A facilitated by Daniel Erspamer, CEO of the Pelican Institute.

The program will begin at 6:15 p.m. and be streamed on the school's Facebook page. The lecture is free.

Palmer is also a senior fellow at the Cato Institute and director of Cato University. He lectures on political science, civil society and the moral, legal and historical foundations of individual rights.
