

FEBRUARY 14, 2013

MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT SUN

REAL CLEAR MARKETS THURSDAY

10 Reasons For Concern About Today's Market - Anthony Mirhaydari, MSN
Take Money Out of Market While It's Still Easy - Alan Abelson, Barron's
Tips For Baffled Investors On Apple - Aswath Damodaran, Financial Times
Layoffs Continue as Wall Street Retools - Andrew Tangel, Los Angeles Times
CEOs Flying Coach? Travel Turns Frugal - Leslie Kwoh & Melissa Korn, WSJ
The Dangerous Big Business/Government Partnership - Tom Borelli, RCM
Obama's Economic Confusion Even Rivals Roosevelt's - Roger Pilon, Forbes
Obama's Good Goals On Trade, Infrastructure - Tim Burrell, USA Today
Marco Rubio Is a Throwback to W. Bushonomics - Matthew Yglesias, Slate
Maybe Bernanke Fed Should Talk and Do Less - Caroline Baum, Bloomberg
Weak Job Creation Is the "New Normal" - Robert Shapiro, Washington Post
Avoiding the Curse of Oil-Rich Nations - Tina Rosenberg, New York Times
Lew's Hearing Was a Substance-Free Zone - Editorial, Wall Street Journal
Global Debt Accumulation Climbs To Record Levels - Fred Kingery, RCM
Memo to Sen. Paul: Growth Is Best Foreign Policy - Louis Woodhill, Forbes
Growth Isn't Enough To Help the Middle - Jim Tankersley, Washington Post

RCM Morning Archive

Off The Street

Laughter Is The Best Medecine For Politics - A. Barton Hinkle, Reason
The President's Miracle Gro Government - Michael Tanner, Cato Institute
Manufacturing: On The Rebound Or Not? - Angus, Kids Prefer Cheese
An EU-US Trade Pact? Good Luck With That - Marginal Revolution
What Happens When The Fed Goes Home? - Matt Tucker, IShares
Why You Should Own Bonds - Lance Roberts, DShort.com

Off the Street Archive

Research Reports

Flat S&P Since 2000 Calls For Diversification - Eric Nelson, Servo Wealth
Are European Stocks Turning Up Again? - Chris Ciovacco, Ciovacco Capital
Petroleum Prices Lead Import Prices Higher - Sam Bullard, Wells Fargo
Paychecks Shrink, But Retail Sales Do Not - Richard Moody, Regions Bank

Research Reports