

BEST OF THE BLOGS FRIDAY

What Would Reagan Do? - Ken Blackwell, Huffington Post
The Freedom Agenda - Peter Wehner, Contentions
Is HC Repeal Creating Uncertainty for Business? - G. Sargent, Plum Line
The Do-Nothing Party - Janelle Bouie, TAPPED
The Neocon/Hawk Split on Egypt - Philip Klein, AmSpec
Key Governors' Races Will Be Fought on GOP Turf - Chris Cillizza, The Fix
Stay Away from the Gimmicks - Steve Benen, Political Animal
Trade Adjustment Assistance Set to Expire? - Sallie James, @Liberty

Afternoon Archive

Morning Edition

Senator Rallies Lobbyists Against Budget Cuts - Robert Costa, The Corner
Unemployment and Obama's Re-Election - Janelle Bouie, TAPPED
$32 Billion in Budget Cuts - Jazz Shaw, Hot Air
Underwhelming Job Growth - Steve Benen, Political Animal
Mubarak Shutting Down Social Media a Big Mistake - Helle Dale, The Foundry
The Continuing Conservative Recovery - Matthew Yglesias, ThinkProgress
Reagan as Draftsman - Ted Bromund, Contentions
Liberals Need to Take the Constitution Seriously - Jennifer Rubin, Right Turn
Consumer Protection Bureau Open for Business - Joan McCarter, Daily Kos
Healing the Teaching Profession - Andie Thomalia, Progressive Fix