

Libertarianism.org Launched Today

Posted on November 3, 2011 by Clark Ruper

LIBERTY. It's a simple idea, but it's also the linchpin of a complex system of values and practices: justice, prosperity, responsibility, toleration, cooperation, and peace. Many people believe that liberty is the core political value of modern civilization itself, the one that gives substance and form to all the other values of social life. THEY'RE CALLED LIBERTARIANS.

Today the Cato Institute launched a new project, Libertarianism.org. While most of the Cato Institute's work focuses on exploring libertarian solutions to public policy, Libertarianism.org explores the history and theory of liberty. The site taps into Cato's extensive never-before-available videos of libertarian figures such as FA Hayek, Milton Friedman, Murray Rothbard, and many more.
