

Grover Norquist: Put defense spending on the table

Tue, 08/21/2012 - 5:19pm | posted by Jason Pye

“Conservatives need to remember that just as spending money on something called ‘education’ doesn’t mean people are educated, and spending money on ‘welfare’ doesn’t mean it adds to the General Welfare. Calling something ‘national defense’ doesn’t mean it is. It may not be. It may undermine national defense if it’s a waste of resources.” - Grover Norquist

As Mitt Romney and Republicans complain about cuts to defense spending as a part of the sequestration agreement that agreed to last year, Grover Norquist, president of Americans for Tax Reform, told Caleb Brown of Cato Institute in yesterday’s daily podcast that these spending cuts need to be on the table.

<http://www.cato.org/multimedia/daily-podcast/budget-hawks-or-military-hawks>

By the way, if you’re not already subscribing to the Cato Daily Podcast, you should, either via iTunes or by RSS.