Update on Georgia Pastor Killed in Drug Raid »

Morning Links

Wednesday, October 7th, 2009

- Reported rapes at 20-year low in the U.S.
- Influence of Mexican drug cartels being undercut by state laws allowing for domestic marijuana grows. I'm sure some drug warrior will be along shortly to tell us why this is a bad thing.
- Sounds like a party at the Golden Corral. Though not one I'd like to attend.
- New Cato site offers "department-by-department guide" to cutting the federal budget. Federal spending has doubled in 10 years.
- Attempted puppycide in Alabama.
- From the files of "headlines you don't see every day."
