3 Senate Bill Sows Seeds of Next Financial Crisis

By Mark A. Calabria With Majority Leader Harry Reid's announcement that Democrats have the 60 votes needed for final passage of the Dodd-Frank financial bill, we can take a moment and remember this as the moment Congress planted the seeds of the next financial crisis. In choosing to ignore the ...

Senate Hottie Scott Brown Hearts Financial Reform

Hit & Run — ... Which is to say that if you actually wanted to take substantive steps to address the roots of the recent economic crisis, well, you're probably out of luck. As Cato's Mark Calabria argues, the bill takes the Alfred E. Neuman approach to the root causes of the financial meltdown: ...

Obama to sign Dodd-Frank monstrosity today

Michelle Malkin — I'm the corruptocrat more responsible for creating the banking meltdown conditions. No, I am! As you all know, the Senate passed the Dodd-Frank financial "reform" sham last week (see my post on the GOP-enabled vote here). Today, President Obama will sign the 2,319-page monstrosity into law. The Associated Press calls it "sweeping." My adjectives are different. Try "galling." In choosing to ignore the actual causes of the financial crisis — loose ...
