

Austin American-Statesman

Foxtrot Uniform performance tops area events

October 22, 2014

- Through Nov. 26: Shirley Hosmer's watercolor and oil painting exhibit will be on display through weekdays at Lakeway City Hall Art Gallery, 1102 Lohmans Crossing, in Lakeway from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Hosmer moved from the Midwest to Lakeway six years ago. Presently, she and her husband live in a home with a small studio where she continues to experiment with watercolor and oil painting. Her work can be found in many private collections all over the country.
- Through Dec. 18: The Lakeway Painters present more than 40 original paintings in oil, acrylic, pastel, water color and pencil at the Lakeway Regional Medical Center, 100 Medical Parkway, in the cafeteria hallway. The Lakeway Painters are a group of more than 50 talented and enthusiastic local artists that gather weekly to paint together on Wednesdays at 9 a.m. at the Lakeway Community Center, 105 Cross Creek.
- Oct. 23: Lake Travis Community Library, 1938 Lohmans Crossing, hosts storyteller Bernadette Nason on at 4 p.m. for an interactive Halloween Story Time. This award-winning actress and comedian does more than simply recite a story – she truly performs and engages young people.
- Oct. 24-26: The annual Fright Fest will take place Oct. 24-25 from 8 p.m.-midnight and Oct. 26 from 5-8 p.m. at the Lakeway Regional Medical Center parking garage lower level, 100 Medical Parkway. LRMC will host a Halloween event that includes the Lakeway Police Department haunted house as well as a costume contest and pumpkin carving. The haunted house will be open all three days, but an hour of scares suited for littler ones is set for 5-6 p.m. Oct. 26. Take part in a graveyard 1-mile run Oct. 25 and a Be Healthy Lake Travis dash Oct. 26. A scavenger hunt and a Trunk or Treat also are set for Oct. 26. Proceeds benefit the Lakeway Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association.
- Oct. 25-26: The Spicewood Arts Society will present the 11th annual Arts Round-Up, a two-day celebration of the visual arts, at La Cabana Grill, 21103 Highway 71 West in Spicewood. More than 20 local and regional artists, including student artists from Spicewood Elementary and West Cypress Elementary schools, will participate in a juried art show and sell their original designs including jewelry, pottery, paintings, photography, and more. In addition to the visual arts show, attendees will be able to enjoy two days of live music showcasing the Spicewood Elementary School Choir, Andrea Marie & the Magnolia Band, George Ensle Trio, The Texas KGB, Ross Rainey, and John Arthur Martinez. The event runs from 10 a.m.- 6 p.m. on Oct. 25 and 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Oct. 26. Admission is free, but a $5 donation is appreciated. A portion of the proceeds will go to support SAS programs for students in the Spicewood Elementary and West Cypress Elementary schools. For questions about the show, please contact SAS at info@spicewoodarts.org or call 512-264-2820.

- Oct. 25: The Lake Travis Fire Rescue Community Foundation will host the inaugural “Tap Room - A Night of Hops and Grapes” from 4-7 p.m. at the Towne Square Pavilion in Steiner Ranch. The community is invited to enjoy an evening of some of the finest local breweries and wineries in the area while supporting the men and women of the Lake Travis Fire Rescue. Tickets are only $35 per person for tastings of all the participating wineries and breweries and include a commemorative glass. Tickets can be purchased in advance at LTFRCCommunityFoundation.org or at the door. Food trucks will be on hand dishing out some of the best local cuisine.

- Oct. 25: The Hill Country Galleria will host its annual Halloween Celebration from 2-9 p.m. in the shopping center’s outdoor amphitheater. The schedule of events includes free face painting, kids’ activities, a kiddie bungee jump, and free trick or treating. Live music by The Sassy Spurs will kick off the celebration at 2 p.m. on the main stage. Children may dress up in costumes and stroll the streets of the Hill Country Galleria while trick-or-treating at participating stores from 4-6 p.m. The celebration will conclude with a free concert by The Brew Birds, from 7-9 p.m. Guests are encouraged to bring a blanket or chairs to sit on while comfortably enjoying the show.

- Oct. 27: Do you have an iPad but don’t know what to do with it? Come to the Lake Travis Community Library, 1938 Lohmans Crossing, at 2 p.m. for the iFought the iPad (and iWon) Training Class. Learn some helpful hints and tricks on everything iPad at this training class. Bring your tablet with you to the class. No registration is needed, just drop-in. Please contact the library for information at 512-263-2885 or visit laketravislibrary.org.

- Oct. 28: The Lake Travis Community Library, 1938 Lohmans Crossing, will present its monthly family flicks program with a Halloween double-feature of “Toy Story of Terror” and “What’s New Scooby-Doo?” Halloween special beginning at 4 p.m. Refreshments will be provided. Please contact the library for information at 512-263-2885 or visit laketravislibrary.org.

- Oct. 29: Atria Senior Living’s Joel H. Quade will explain the nuts and bolts of retirement living at the Lakeway Men’s Breakfast Club meeting at the Lakeway Activity Center, 105 Cross Creek. The meetings are open to all men in the Lake Travis area. There is a $1 continental breakfast at 7 a.m., and the speaker begins his presentation at 8 a.m. No reservations or memberships are required. For information, email Tom Cain at speakers@thomascain.com.

- Oct. 30: The Lakeway Village Square, 1200 Lakeway Drive, is hosting its 22nd annual Lakeway Village Scare from 4-6 p.m. Children’s singer Joe McDermott and all the tenants will be passing out goodies, along with members of the Lakeway Police Department and the Lake Travis Fire Department.

• Nov. 1: The Hill Country Galleria continues its free Saturday evening concert series with an appearance by psychedelic roots rockers Foxtrot Uniform. The show runs from 7-9 p.m. in the shopping center's amphitheater, which is located at 12700 Hill Country Blvd.

• Nov. 1: The city of Bee Cave will celebrate the opening of the Bee Cave Sculpture Park, a complement to the ongoing Benches of Bee Cave program, from 2 to 4 p.m. The opening will showcase five new and unique sculptures. The newly placed pieces join 11 original sculptures installed for the 2013 Park dedication. All are displayed in the natural setting that provides visitors with a place for reflection, relaxation, and interaction in addition to improving the aesthetic quality of the community. The park is located near the intersection of Highway 71 and RM 620, directly across from the Bee Cave Police Station at 13333 Highway 71.

• Nov. 16: Viewpoints, Lakeway's annual distinguished speaker series, time continues with a presentation titled "The Foreign Policy Wisdom of the Founders: Still Valid in the 21st Century" by Ted Galen Carpenter, vice president of defense and foreign policy studies at the Cato Institute. The series program runs on the third Sunday night in November, January, February and March. Programs are from 6-8 p.m. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. Cost is $85 per person for Lakeway Activity Center members and $100 for non-members. Price includes dinner. Season passes are available weekdays from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. at the LAC, 105 Cross Creek. For information, call 512-261-1010.