Most Republicans now think Iraq war was a mistake

March 25th, 2010 1:55 pm | by Mike Miller | Published in Foreign Policy, Politics, War, congress | Comment On This Article

The Cato Institute reported on a recent panel (titled 'Escalate or Withdraw? Conservatives and the War in Afghanistan') in which the revelation was made that the vast majority of Republican Congressmen now think that invading Iraq was a big mistake:

A horizontal banner for Capella University. On the left is a small portrait of a man. The main text in white on a red background reads "Graduate-level curriculum exclusively designed for online" and "FIND YOUR PROGRAM" with a right-pointing arrow. On the right is the Capella University logo, which includes a shield with a 'C' and the text "CAPELLA THE UNIVERSITY ONLINE".
