Our stud in Washington Jamie Dupree has been combing through Obama's proposed budget to dig up any gems. Here's what he's found thus far.

Republicans better not be getting complacent. Recent Gallup polls show that most states still favor Democratic candidates.

The White House has quietly scrapped its rubric for measuring how many jobs it has "created or saved".

Rep. Carolyn Maloney of New York says that that "Democrats have been considerably more effective at creating private-sector jobs." Is this true?

Trying to stay ahead of Barack Obama and his healthcare dreams and schemes, lawmakers in about half of the states are working on constitutional amendments to ban government health insurance mandates.

The Cato Institute explains why Obama can blame Bush all he wants, but his budget is even worse than George Bush's.

Here is what Nancy Pelosi considers a good use of your tax dollars.

Did the president of the Service Employees International Union (SEIU) violate the Lobbying Disclosure Act with his constant visits to the White House?

Good news for the good people of Florida. Looks like Marco Rubio is trouncing Charlie Crist in the polls.

States' Secretary of States are becoming increasingly influential.

Did you ever think the words "political instability" would apply to the United States?

CNNMoney.com ... America's biggest rip-offs. Here's No. 5 in the series. Now .. just how do you define "rip-off?"

The fun-loving folks at Westboro Baptist Church (you know, the "God Hates Fags" people) decided to go to San Francisco to protest Twitter for some reason. They didn't count on a counter protest. A hilarious protest.

Caution: exploding penguins!

And now for the Muslim washing machine.
