Don't print liberal columnists

Dennis Beavers

July 11, 2018

I have read the columns by Cokie and John Roberts enough to know they are mere liberal mouthpieces.

Immigration is the No. 1 issue in our country. The Robertses quote the Washington Post, which is liberal. Cato Institute also is used as a source. This is more often the author's view than factual.

I resent millionaires telling readers they know best. Apparently the Robertses haven't been to the border with Mexico or done any actual investigating other than the internet. They are entitled to their opinion, but please keep to the facts.

It is too bad the Cokie and John Roberts' column is even published.

Calling the president a liar is too much.
