Mon, 01/25/2010 - 12:32pm | posted by Jason Pye

The American University Students for Liberty will host the 3rd Annual International Students for Liberty Conference from February 12-14.

The International SFL Conference is the premiere event of the year for students dedicated to liberty and advancing freedom on campus. The largest crowd of pro-liberty students will gather for a weekend of learning about liberty from contemporary leaders in liberty, discussing best practices for promoting liberty on campus, and getting more involved in the larger movement for liberty.

Speakers at the conference will include Ed Crane, Founder and President of the Cato Institute, and Gary Johnson, former Governor of New Mexico and Honorary Chairman of the Our America Initiative. The conference will also hold workshops on Marketing Liberty on Campus and How to Dominate YouTube.

If you live in the DC area or will just happen to be in town that weekend, you can register here (but you have to register before January 31st).

United Liberty will likely be there to cover the event, so if you see one of our guys, make sure you say hello.
