Labor Department jolts Postal Service over electrical work-safety violations - Washington Post - Comments

Postal hike not a solution
Journal Standard - Comments

The Portland Press Herald says "Let other firms compete with postal service" -
PEN Ed: Here's just one of their incorrect statements - "... (USPS) is a system built to handle 300 billion pieces of mail a year that is currently handling 170 billion. That seems like a lot, but considering that package and message delivery services like FedEx and UPS handle more (???) , and could certainly pick up letter delivery as well, the postal monopoly seems more than a bit antiquated." - Comments (2)
