

Published by the Foundation for Economic Education
December 09, 2009 | Subscribe via RSS

- Home
- About
- Archive
- Cartoons
- Spread the Word
- Submissions
- Subscribe
- FEE

•

Senate Reaches Deal on Public Option

Posted December 09, 2009

Print This Post • Email This Post • 0 comments • ★ Add to favorites

Tweet This

Post on Facebook

Post to Digg

Stumble this!

Filed Under: In brief

Tags: health care • medical insurance • socialism • welfare state

“After days of secret talks, Senate Democrats tentatively agreed Tuesday night to drop a full-blown government-run insurance option from sweeping health care legislation, several officials said, a concession to party moderates whose votes are critical to passage of President Barack Obama’s top domestic priority.” (AP, Wednesday)

It’s not over til the Senate votes.

FEE Timely Classic:

“Health Care: Over the Canadian Cliff” by Doug Bandow

Post a Response

Facebook Comments

Add a comment...

Name

E-mail

Post

or

Connect with Facebook

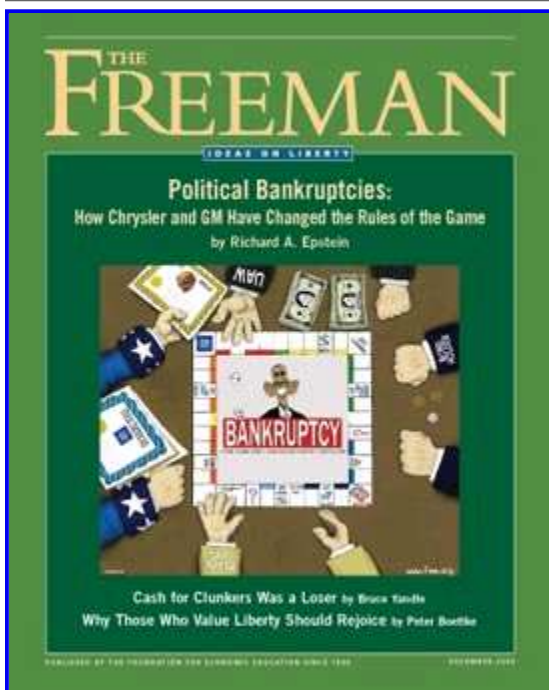

Log in to Facebook to post your comment

Name (required)

Mail (will not be published) (required)

Website

Submit Comment

In Print:

December 2009

Barack Obama changed the rules when he intervened in the bankruptcies of GM and Chrysler. There's no telling what the consequences will be for the economy. Also in this issue: A Nobel Prize we can rejoice over, a clunker of a government program, and a depression you never heard of.

View Contents

Political Bankruptcies: How Chrysler and GM Have Changed the Rules of the Game

Richard A. Epstein

Cash for Clunkers Was a Loser

Bruce Yandle

Who Value Liberty Should Rejoice: Elinor Ostrom's Nobel Prize

Boettke

Copyright © 2007 The Freeman | Ideas On Liberty · Log in