Rumson-Fair Haven Regional honors alumni with ceremony

May 12, 2010

RUMSON — Rumson-Fair Haven Regional High School will bring three graduates back to be inducted into the schools Hall of Fame at 2 p.m. Friday for a ceremony at the school on Ridge Road.

All three of this year's inductees are from Rumson: George Miles graduated with the class of 1970. He is the curator of the Western Americana Collection at the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library at Yale University.

John J. Ryan graduated with the class of 1971. He began a 20-year career with Mercantile Stores as a buyer and worked his way up the corporate ladder until he reached the position of executive vice president for merchandising and marketing.

Gene Healy is a well-known political pundit, journalist and editor whose areas of interest include executive power, the role of the presidency and federalism. He graduated with the class of 1989. He is vice president of the Cato Institute in Washington, D.C., a nonprofit policy research foundation.

The advertisement features the USA TODAY logo at the top left, followed by the word "AutoPilot" in a large, bold, black font. To the right of "AutoPilot" is a blue airplane icon. Below the title, a smartphone screen displays the app's interface, showing a "USA TODAY Meeting" for Sep 21, 2009, with flight details for A6 (BNA to IAD) and weather for Washington (IAD). To the right of the phone, the text reads "The new travel app for iPhone® and iPod touch®". Below this, it says "Presented by: Hampton" with the Hampton logo. At the bottom right, a blue button with white text says "SEE HOW IT WORKS »".
