

inef.ie Irish Needle Exchange Forum

- Home
- Aims
- Membership
- Sponsorship
- Contact INEF
- National Conference 2009
- INEF Best Practice Document

Welcome to The Irish Needle Exchange Forum

The INEF exists to actively develop, support, and sustain a network of high quality, comprehensive needle exchange and other harm reduction services across Ireland.

• Glenn Greenwald discusses his new Cato Institute paper

Posted on September 13th, 2009 TimB No comments

Glenn Greenwald discusses his new Cato Institute paper, "Drug Decriminalization in Portugal: Lessons for Creating Fair and Successful Drug Policies." Greenwald is a constitutional lawyer and a contributing writer at Salon. He has authored several books, including A Tragic Legacy (2007) and How Would a Patriot Act? (2006). The interview was on WNYC radio.

ShareThis

In the press, Podcasts, Resources decriminalisation, glenn greenwald, portugal

Leave a reply

You must be logged in to post a comment.

•

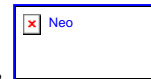

Pages

- Aims
- Contact INEF
- INEF Best Practice Document
- INEF planning group
- Membership
- National Conference 2009
- Sponsorship

Categories

- Best Practice
- Conferences
- General Irish Drug Services News
- In the press
- INEF meetings
- INEF news
- Podcasts
- Relevant Videos
- Resources
- Submitted Articles
- Submitting an article or resource
- Training

Associate Sponsors

Partners

Social Networking

