Live Blog With CATO Health Reform Experts during Obama's speech tonight

September 9th, 2009 12:26 pm | by Marc Gallagher | Published in Big Government, Commentary, Health Care, Live Blog | 11 Comments

Tonight Obama addresses a joint session of Congress in an attempt to push his version of health reform through. The pundits are all arguing about what he will say, but we all know what his ultimate intentions are. Join the health care experts from CATO for a live blog event during Obama's speech so that you get a well-rounded view of his words. Below is the announcement:

President Obama is set to address Congress Wednesday night in an effort to push through his health care agenda. Cato will be watching.

Cato health care policy experts Michael D. Tanner and Michael F. Cannon will live-blog President Obama's address to Congress Wednesday night at 8:00 PM EST.

We'll start a bit before 8:00 on Cato@Liberty so please join us for this discussion of Obama's proposals. We'll also post comments on Twitter and take questions after the speech.
