United States and Russia Reach Nuclear Arms Deal

Each country to reduce nuclear weapons in pact

Updated: Monday, 29 Mar 2010, 12:59 PM EDT
Published: Monday, 29 Mar 2010, 12:59 PM EDT

The United States and Russia have reached a deal that would cut their nuclear arsenals by about one-third under the terms that will be signed early next month.

President Barack Obama says the pact is an indication that both countries are leaving behind the days of the Cold War. James Carafano, Deputy Director of the Douglas and Sarah Allison Center for Foreign Policy Studies at The Heritage Foundation, and Justin Logan, Associate Director of Foreign Policy at the Cato Institute, joined Fox 5 to discuss the agreement and its implications for the United States and its global security.
