ROGER'S PICKS FOR THE CALIFORNIA PRIMARY!

Roger's June election Prop picks. I welcome your input at the ROGER@ROGERHEDGECOCK.COM

Prop 13. Yes.

Encourages seismic upgrades by exempting such improvements from triggering a property reassessment and higher property taxes.

Prop 14. No

A "top 2" system would result in public sector union dominance of the elections. For example, well funded groups of Democrat voters under Prop 14 could affect the Republican primary by voting for the weaker of two Republican candidates, leaving their party's candidate in a stronger position in the general election.

Prop 15. No

This is the beginning of publicly funded campaigns, funded in this instance by a new tax. Publicly funded campaigns will result in even more entrenchment of a political ruling elite.

Prop 16 Yes

Voters should have to vote affirmatively to allow local government to enter any new field of endeavor given how poorly such governments are doing the jobs they now have responsibility for.

Prop 17 Yes

Allows car insurance companies to reward drivers who have kept up their insurance coverage and also allows companies to reward new customers searching for lower rates.

Roger Hedgecock Coalition to Block Assault on First Amendment

Washington, D.C.- Over last weekend more than two dozen of the nation's top talk shows and media outlets held an unprecedented private meeting to brainstorm strategies against what they agreed are government plans to squelch First Amendment rights.

Organized by Brad O'Leary, author of the new book, "Shut Up, America! The End of Free Speech" and Joseph Farah, editor and chief executive officer of World Net Daily (www.wnd.com), the group chose a spokesman and chairman of the coalition - Radio America syndicated host Roger Hedgecock of San Diego, CA. Other members of the group included nationally syndicated radio hosts Lars Larson (www.larslarson.com), Rusty Humphries (www.talk2rusty.com), Rev. Jesse Lee Peterson (www.bondaction.org), Steve Gill (www.gillreport.com) and local hosts Martha Zoller (www.marthazoller.com), Joyce Kaufman (www.joycekaufman.com) and Kirby Wilbur (www.kvi.com/onair/kirby).

The Coalition, legally formed as The American Radio Free Speech Foundation, has created a public awareness campaign and educational initiative-- Don't Touch My Dial (www.donttouchmydial.com).

The Nation faces an insidious attack on its First Amendment Rights that is being cloaked in legislation and regulation evidenced by the recently circulated draft FCC regulations (first proposed in February, 2008) to impose "localism" and "media ownership diversity" on talk radio.

In addition, under the guise of "cyberspace security", Senators Rockefeller, Snowe, and Nelson have introduced S773 which would, critics say, give the federal government control over the internet including, under emergency conditions, the right of the President to shut down the whole internet or, sites on it, including the interruption of email.

When the public is informed about what is happening behind the scenes to threaten their First Amendment rights, they will be outraged. As shown in a recent poll that was commissioned by the coalition and is part of the "Zogby/O'Leary Report's First 100 Days Poll" when 3,937 voters from the last election were asked: "Four members of the US Senate recently introduced a bill that would allow the President of the United States to turnoff the internet nationally in the event of an emergency, however the Bill does not DEFINE what constitutes an emergency. Do you support or oppose this bill?" 81.8 % percent said they would oppose the bill and 5% said they would support it.

"The assault on the 1st Amendment that is being planned by the Government and the extremist Left is not limited to their desire to silence conservative talk radio," Hedgecock noted. "Newspapers and Television are not immune to the anti-First Amendment efforts that are at work here. In addition, the internet is also a target for receiving the restrictive aspects of the so-called "fairness doctrine" as a means of stifling criticism for anything that is being reported or commented upon. Apparently the Administration wishes to silence any avenue from which the truth can escape the yoke of government ny."

Hedgecock commented further, "This issue -- and thent need for a broad-based, aggressive coalition to fight back -- is much bigger than talk radio, and much more dangerous than an effort to simply silence a few voices that the current Administration dislikes. This fight is a First Amendment fight and one that every American muinwoith, which is why we have created 'Don't Touch My Dial' as a vehicle for masipation."

Hedgecock is also the Chairson for Unfair Air (www.unfairair.org), Radio America's Free Radio Coalition to protect First Amendment Rights as they pertain to radio audiences. Unfair Air is a member of the new broader based Coalitwill activethe 'tDiampaign.

Hedgecock is an exclusive columnist for World Net Daily (www.wnd.com) and the author of the recently published three book series:Conservative Voter's Field Guide to: #1- Immigration, #2- The War and #3 - Healthcare(www.amazon.com). He is also a frequent guest on HanO'Reilly ows, on CNN's Lou Dobb's Show and on MSNBC. He was also guest host on The Rush Limover a decade.

nd The One Written by a Pastor's Wife - Brillia

And it cae Age of Insanity that the people of the land called America, having lost thr initiative, thand their will to defens, chose as their Supreme Leader that person known as The One. He emerged from the vapors with a message that had no meaning; but He hypnotized thethem, "I am sent to save you. My lack of experience, my questionable ethics, my monstrous ego, and my association with evil doers are of no consequence. For I shall save you with Hope and Change. Go, therefore, and proclaim throughout the land that he has defiled the nation, and that all he has built must be destroyed."

And the people rejoiced, for even though they knew not what The One would do,that it was good; and they believed.

And The One said "We live in the greatest country in the world. Help me change everything about it!"

And the people said, "Hallelujah! Change is good!" for tbed down.

And the people said "Sock it to them!"

". . . and redistribute their wealth."

And the people said, "Show us the money!"

And then He said, "Redistribution of wealth is good for everybody."

And Joe the plumber asked, "Are you kidding me? You're going to steal my money and give it to the deadbeats?"

And The One ridiculed and taunted him, and Joe's personal records were hacked and publicized.

One lone reporter asked, "Isn't that Marxist policy?"

And she was banished from the kingdom!

Then a citizen asked, "With no foreign relations experience and having zero military experience or knowledge, how will you deal with radical terrorists?"

And The One said, "Simple. I shall sit with them and talk with them and show them how nice we really are; and they will forget that they ever wanted to kill us all!"

And the people said, "Hallelujah! We are safe at last, and we can beat our weapons into free cars for the people!"

Then The One said, "I shall give 95% of you lower taxes."

And one lone voice said, "But 40% of us don't pay ANY taxes."

So The One said, "Then I shall give you some of the taxes the fat-cats pay!"

And the people said, "Hallelujah! Show us the money!"

Then The One said, "I shall tax your Capital Gains when you sell your homes!"

And the people yawned and the slumping housing market collapsed.

And He said, "I shall mandate employer-funded health care for EVERY worker and raise the minimum wage. And I shall give every person unlimited healthcare and medicine and transportation to the clinics."

And the people said, "Give me some of that!"

Then He said, "I shall penalize employers who ship jobs overseas."

And the people said, "Where's my rebate check?"

Then The One said, "I shall bankrupt the coal industry and electricity rates will skyrocket!"

And the people said, "Coal is dirty, coal is evil, no more coal! But we don't care for that part about higher electric rates."

So The One said, "Not to worry. If your rebate isn't enough to cover your expenses, we shall bail you out. Just sign up with ACORN and your troubles are over!"

Then He said, "Illegal immigrants feel scorned and slighted. Let's grant them amnesty, Social Security, free education, free lunches, free medical care, bilingual signs and guaranteed housing."

And the people cried, "Hallelujah!" And they made him King!

And so it came to pass that employers, facing spiraling costs and ever-higher taxes, raised their prices and laid off workers. Others simply gave up and went out of business and the economy sank like unto a rock dropped from a cliff. The banking industry was destroyed. Manufacturing slowed to a crawl. And more of the people were without a means of support.

Then The One said, "I am The One - The Messiah - and I'm here you! We shall j
