Overdose Online

Michael C. Moynihan | September 1, 2010

A few months back I interviewed filmmaker Martin Borgs who, along with Cato Institute scholar Johan Norberg, had just released the documentary film Overdose: The Next Financial Crisis. Based loosely on Norberg's terrific book Financial Fiasco, the film features interviews with lots of clever people, including Nobelist Vernon Smith, the prescient financial commentator Peter Schiff, and Atlantic blogger Megan McArdle. After doing the festival circuit, Overdose can now be viewed in its entirety (about 46 minutes) on Youtube:
