Qaradawi calls for "peaceful campaign" to reverse Swiss minaret ban

"It is obligatory on the part of the Swiss government to take necessary measures to safeguard the lives of the Muslim minority against this animosity.

"The IFU urges the Muslim minority in Switzerland to be calm and restrain from emotional reactions. They should seek to have this decision annulled through legal and democratic channels. And work in co-ordination with all those local and international organisations that have deplored this decision.

"The IFU also calls upon the Organisation of Islamic Conference (OIC) to launch an international campaign against this decision and to expose the double standards practised by the Western countries."

"This debate surrounding the burqa bothers me," Ramadan told the panel. (of course it does. Any move to reverse the creeping Islamization of Europe

Demon-rat Waxman: Government Must Control Media

Free Press, a public interest group, said the search for solutions to the crisis in journalism should be premised on the idea that news-gathering is a public service, not a commodity.

Editor's Note: The danger presented by any — any — government intervention into the free media far outweighs any benefit that could be conceived. If newspapers have to go the way of the dinosaur because of technological advancement, so be it. A truly free press cannot be compromised by opportunistic and ideological politicians nervously scrambling to maintain the information pipeline status quo.

No coincidence:

Feinstein, Durbine Seek To Limit Citizen Journalism

Two key Democrats have introduced an amendment that would put citizen journalists at risk, giving protections to only established journalists.
