Eurolinks

Wir fahr'n fahr'n fahr'n auf der Autobahn:

- Justin Logan on professional incentives facing wannabe foreign policymakers.
- People like Barack Obama.
- It would be interesting to see what would happen if health reform critics would would stop making stuff up and start criticizing actual provisions of the proposals.
- Source-greasing from Spencer Ackerman who seems to have forgotten how terrible the Wolverine movie was.
- Myth versus reality on international climate change negotiations.
- Lots of greenwashing on display at the Frankfurt auto show.

I think finding bands I like will be easier when I get to Sweden, but for now here's Kraftwerk's "Autobahn".

I do rather like the suggestion a Spackerman commenter made for a GAO report on the Weapon Plus program. Sounds like a job for McSweeney's.
